

Jenkintown2035 Vision

Located in the heart of Eastern Montgomery County, Jenkintown is a warm, inviting, and unique small town. With convenient access to regional amenities, proximity to Philadelphia, and connections to strong transit networks, Jenkintown is a family-friendly, safe, and inclusive community valued for its tree-lined streets, historic homes, and quality school district. Its diverse mix of housing options and walkable downtown make it the ideal place to live at all life stages. Jenkintown is also a growing destination for arts, music, dining, and entertainment.

Jenkintown envisions a vibrant future for the community that builds upon its rich foundation as a leader in sustainability, economic development, and community involvement.

In 2035, Jenkintown will be...

- a dynamic small town that employs innovative strategies to celebrate, support, preserve and enhance its unique school district, historic housing stock, diverse houses of worship, valuable natural environment, and thriving commercial center.
- a progressive, sustainable community that promotes walkability, bikeability, and environmental stewardship with tree-lined streets, open spaces, native and edible landscapes, and best practices for storm water and other natural resource management.
- a hub for commerce anchored by an iconic, pedestrian-oriented, and charming downtown district that allows distinctive local businesses to thrive and grow within a small town atmosphere with exceptional arts and cultural offerings, dining, and entertainment.
- successful in its endeavors to forward economic development, historic preservation and environmental protection by encouraging community engagement at all levels and by collaborating with residents, business owners, property owners, the school district, and other key stakeholders.

Jenkintown celebrates its neighborhood diversity, classic town center, and historic and cultural heritage that combine to make it the ideal place to live, work, and play at all life stages.
