Fern and Fang

Private Tattoo and Art studio

Fern and Fang will be a private tattoo and art studio located at 741 Yorkway place. The studio will consist of two artists; Koty Nyman and Alex Zampirri. The focus of this business is to provide a superior tattoo experience to our clientele, in a clean and comfortable environment. The studio will operate under strict appointment only scheduling, providing no public business hours. Tattoo appointments as well as appointment consultations must all be scheduled via the shop website. Fern and Fang will offer high end, quality tattooing in a professional environment, while also providing a personalized experience to each client. All artists will maintain up to date education and certification of blood borne pathogens as to properly provide a safe and sterile environment / experience for the clients. Being a private studio all correspondence will be done via the shop website. Operating in this manner will also mitigate miscommunication with clientele as there will be email records of said correspondence. Being a private studio, Fern and Fang will have subtle signage to serve the purpose of clientele locating the studio as well as studio entrance, not for advertising purposes. Fern and Fang strives to uphold a high level of professionalism and artistic aptitude for all potential clientele.
